Horrible Accident at Tremont.

TREMONT, O., April 16.—To-day at one o'clock p. m., Michael Carroll, a boy sixteen years old, an employee at A. D. Noble's lime kiln, was working on top of the furnace when the stones beneath him gave way, throwing him into the burning pit. It was early thirty minutes before he could be taken out. His clothing was burned entirely off, and all that was left of the body was a charred mass.

Terrible Crime of a Chinaman.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 16.—The popular feeling against the Chinese is intensified by the discovery of a murder that, for cold-blooded deliberation, is scarcely equalled in the annals of crime of the Pacific slope. The murderer is a Chinaman, named Ah Lung, and his victim Severance.

The body of Severance was discovered in a wood-pile near Ah Lung's house, and the Chinaman has confessed that he killed Severance by striking him on the head with an ax while he was milking his cow.

Ah Lung placidly states that the murder was planned a long time before and that he had already prepared a grave for his victim, in order that he might quickly and effectively conceal his body.

The Chinaman dug the grave underneath the spot where was located the nest of a setting hen. He removed the nest to dig the grave, and when he had buried Severance he replaced it in order to more completely cover up any trace of the crime. It is feared he will be lynched.

TO-DAY IN CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON.

Acklen Virtually Retires From Congress.

Monroe Doctrine Laid Away for the Session.

Special to the Star.
WASHINGTON, April 16.—General Singley says that upon General King's return from Louisiana the Inter-oceanic Canal committee will endorse the Monroe Doctrine and drop the subject for the remainder of the session.

Acklen Virtually Retires.
Several prominent Democratic members of that Acklen's continued absence is virtually a retirement from Congress, and at he will not return at all during the remainder of his term. The Judiciary committee intimated to him that he had better take this course.

General Lafayette's Portrait.
At the suggestion of Ex-Speaker Winthrop, Garfield to-day introduced a resolution to provide means for the preservation of Schaefer's portrait of Lafayette, which hangs in the hall of the House and which has begun to scale. This is one of the most valuable paintings in the Capitol.

Tilden About to Pull Off.
WASHINGTON, April 16.—The Evening Star prints the following telegram from Washington to a Philadelphia paper, stating that Tilden had prepared a letter to be presented to the coming State Convention in New York announcing his withdrawal from the Presidential race, was the topic of some discussion at the Capitol to-day.

Senator, who is always well informed about Democratic plans and whose relations with Tilden are friendly, said while the report might not be true in detail it was in fact.

That Tilden has determined not to be a candidate and he may make the announcement to the State Convention or at any time before it until the National Convention meets. He avers in a most positive manner, however, that Tilden will get off the track for his opponents are in a majority in the State Convention or even numerous enough to form strong minority. Then Tilden will inform the Convention that he is no candidate.

Chauncey W. Black, one of the most active Tilden men in Pennsylvania, was asked by a Star reporter if the coming State Convention would declare for Tilden. Black remarked significantly that Tilden would not be in anybody's way much longer. He said that Tilden would withdraw from the race and there would be no occasion to fuss over him.

Black was asked if the so-called Tilden fight in Pennsylvania was being waged really in the interest of Speaker Randall for President or Vice President, but he did not answer this question. Very many are of the opinion that Tilden did contemplate making Randall his political heir some time ago, but that he has now changed his mind, owing to Democratic hostility to the Speaker, and will take up either Payne, or Jewett, or Groves, or some other man, with the view of forcing the nomination of a friend.

It is believed Tilden is maintaining his hold on the party in New York. Representative Willis, of Kentucky, said to the Star reporter: "I was talking to day with a prominent Democrat who is just from New York, and while there he conversed with Tilden. Mr. Tilden told him he would not be a candidate before the Convention, and all he asked of the party was honorable opposition in the selection of its candidate for President. That expression is so eminent Tildenish that it carries with it the conviction that he uttered it. I know that I said positively that he would not be a candidate."

POST-OFFICE NAMES.
There are about fifteen hundred small post-offices in the country which are in repeated instances similarly named, or whose names are very unwieldy. The Post-office Department to-day commenced to change these names, and will go on gradually to that end. This change of names will not only expedite the delivery of mails, but also simplify books and work of the Department. Only the minor offices will have their names changed.

WEDDING AT THURMAN'S RESIDENCE.
Miss Mary Mitchell, of Kentucky, a granddaughter of Gen. Leslie Combs, was married at the residence of Senator Thurman, in this city, yesterday afternoon, to Mr. John W. Foster, of Leesburg, Va. The wedding was quite private, though a number of distinguished people were present, including the members of the Kentucky and Virginia Congressional delegations.

SLOSSON DID NOT HAVE FAIR PLAY.

Special to the Star.
NEW YORK, April 16.—Mr. L. E. Slosson has received a letter from his brother, George. In it George complains that Vignaux does not show him much courtesy. He says, also, that he had to pay 1,000 francs to secure a hall to practice in, and a franc an hour for gas. "I asked Vignaux," Slosson writes, "to allow me something for expenses, as it was he who put the game off from time to time. He replied that no American should get anything from him; that he had me here, and would put me to all the expense possible. Al Smith is here, and he and several others think so well of my play that they have made up a purse of $20,000 which they have offered to the Vignaux party, even up. Vignaux's great backing comes from the Jockey Club." Vignaux is a common soldier of the line, and it was necessary for the members of the Jockey Club to sign a petition to enable him to go from Toulouse to play the match.

PROVIDENCE, April 16.—But nine men appeared on the track to-day in the twenty-two hour go-as-you-please race. Fitzgerald, Harriman and Hourihan having taken back seats. Vint crept up to the fourth place, and Cox took second position, both running very rapidly.

INTERNATIONAL BILLIARDS.

PARIA, April 16.—The International Billiard Match close here last night. Score: Vignaux, 4,000; Slosson, 3,117. Grand average by Vignaux, 80; by Slosson, 62.9-25. Time of game 3h. 36m.

Slosson is pressing Vignaux to play him another game on similar terms as the one just concluded. Vignaux has asked time to consider the proposition, but will probably decline, as Slosson's run of 1,133 points last night rather astonished him.
